STRANGER THINGS HAVE HAPPENED

A blend of theater & tv scenes and monologues. Each story reveals that something strange may be going on in the world around us.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND (ADAPTATION)

Alice stumbles upon two delightfully absurd twins whose twisted logic, playful menace, and childlike quarrels turn a quiet woodland encounter into a whirlwind of wit and chaos. As reality bends and nonsense reigns, Alice must navigate a world where words mean everything and nothing at all.

LACKADAISY

A lyrical, personified meditation reimagines the Mississippi River as a restless, mythic force of history and rebellion, celebrating its wild vitality, cultural power, and defiance of restraint through rich, poetic language.

THE RED HOUSE MONSTER

Two sisters' heated curiosity about a looming, mysterious house escalates into chilling myth and sacrifice, as sibling rivalry and fear collide with legend, loyalty and the terrifying possibility that monsters may be real.

MAX'S MONOLOGUE

In a raw, intimate monologue, Max confesses her grief, guilt, and longing after losing her brother, revealing how unspoken sacrifice and unresolved love continue to shape her life in his absence.

ROBIN'S MONOLOGUE

Reflecting on a teenage crush and heartbreak, Robin recounts how losing herself in someone else led to an unexpected moment of self-discovery, realizing that confidence, freedom, and identity had been within her all along.

A WRINKLE IN TIME (ADAPTATION)

As Meg and Calvin search for her missing brother, a shared moment of intellect and vulnerability forges an unexpected bond, hinting that their questions about family, understanding, and the unknown may lead somewhere extraordinary.

THE FOREST FROM THE TREES

Two friends on a nighttime hike find themselves repeatedly circling the same forest clearing, where humor, frustration, and quiet reflection turn being lost into an unexpected opportunity to reconsider direction, purpose, and what it means to truly notice where you are.

JURY DUTY

Jury Duty is an original play created and performed by our students, featuring characters they developed themselves. Each student built an original character through detailed notebook work, exploring backgrounds, memories, and personal traits. From those creations, I wrote the play you are about to see. This process is called devised theatre, as the final piece is shaped by many creative voices. Throughout rehearsals, the students continuously contributed ideas and refined the work into its finished form. Their creativity, insight, & collaboration have made this production possible, and it has been a joy to work with them. Without further ado, I present Jury Duty, a devised play by the River Ridge Acting II Class of 2025.
